

Inorganic Ventures' Declaration of Integrity

While our reputation is nearly perfect, we're not infallible. That's why every order we ship includes this document. Herein we state, in no uncertain terms, that we are 100% accountable for the quality of our standards and service.

Therefore, if you're dissatisfied with your order for any reason, tell us. We'll resolve the situation in whatever way works best for you:

- ◆ A full refund
- ◆ Complimentary technical services
- ◆ A replacement item rushed to you at no cost

Our company was founded on integrity. If our standards aren't measuring up to yours, we want to know.
